W.I.S.E. July Program on Zoom
Saturday, July 26 at 1:30pm MDT

Sylvia Tracy Doolos

"Irish Research Methodology Uncovered: Who, When, and Where to Search"

W.I.S.E. President, Sylvia Tracy Doolos, will shift our focus to the Emerald Isle. She explains that "Irish research is challenging due to record loss, poor record keeping, and the turmoil that is so well documented within Ireland. Specific techniques and methods of researching can streamline your quest for your Irish ancestors."

As always, this program is free and open to all. Registration is required. If you previously registered for Marilyn's program you do not need to register again.

Genealogy Refresher
Presented by Noel Ferre
Virtual/ZOOM

This class will reinforce the foundational skills and concepts of genealogical research, while helping update our techniques. Whether you're picking up where you left off or want to refresh your skills, this session will help you reconnect with the best practices of sound genealogical research. Noel Ferre fell in love with genealogy almost 30 years ago when she found a stack of letters dating back to 1842 that belonged to her Dutch great-grandmother. Noel served as past Program Director and past President of the Castle Rock Colorado Genealogical Society. Login, then Class Registration at <https://www.crcgs.org>
